A RALLY ON INTERNATIONAL PLASTIC BAG FREE DAY – 3rd JULY 2023

REPORT

The “International Plastic Bag Free Day Rally” was organized by the Eco Club of Aiman College of Arts and Science for Women on 3rd July 2023 in and out of our campus.

The main objective of the cause was to protect the environment from land and water Pollution. And, also to control the excess use of Plastic bags and plastic things. In this modern world, people are using plastic bags and plastic things at a high rate. This causes land and water pollution are occur. So people should use alternative sources for these plastic bags and things like cloth bags.

Our Students, Teaching, and Non – Teaching staff participated in the event and were not allowed to plastic bags and other things on our campus. The Eco Club volunteers went Outside of the campus Inam Periyanyaki Chatram along with the Eco Club In chargers, Ms. N. Prasanna Devi, Assistant Professor, Department of English, and Ms. S. Indhumathi, Assistant Professor, PG Department of Food Service Management and Dietetics contacted the rally to create the awareness about effects of plastic bags. The students carried cloth bags and placards in the rally. During the rally, students distributed the bags to people and shops. More than 45 students, 2 faculty, and 6 non-teaching staff were participated enthusiastically.
