Report on “National Educational Day Celebration”

Institution’s Innovation Cell & AIMAAN College of Arts & Science for Women organized a monument celebration on Commemorating the Birth Anniversary of Maulana Abdul Kalam Azad through online mode on 11th November 2021 from 9.30 am to 12.45pm. The agenda of the program was declared by Ms.B.Farhan, Assistant Professor, Department of English & Convener of IIC AIMAAN College. Dr.M.Nazreen Banu, Vice Principal & Head Department of Computer Application delivered the welcome address by stating how education education brings revolution in the society. Dr.M.M.Shahul Hameed, Director, felicitated with a note on importance of add-on courses in the field of education.

Dr.Suhashini Ernest, Principal, AIMAAN College of Arts & Science for Women as well the Special guest of the event shared her thoughts on National Educational Day which helps to strengthen the Educational Institutions in India. She highlighted the contributions of Maulana Abdul Kalam Azad to the growth of the education sector by laying the foundation of higher education, scientific research, technological advancement, knowledge-based education and oriental learning and literature. With the intention of improving social, religious and cultural diversity across India, he had also set up three fine arts academies, namely, Lalit Kala Academy, Sangeet Natak Academy and Sahitya Academy.

Azad was also a champion of women’s right to education and promoted the practice of free and compulsory education for children aged 14 years or below. The program was live streamed in YouTube. Students watched the program. Vote of thanks was proposed by Dr.Malathi,Assistant Professor Department of Mathematics.
