REPORT

Name of the Program	: BBAYATAI(Food Stall)
Total Student Strength	: 92
Venue	: College Ground
Date	: 12.01.2024

BBAYATAI, the flavourful collaboration between the BBA Department and the Institution Innovation Council (IIC), turned the campus into a gastronomic paradise on 12.01.2024. The event aimed to showcase the entrepreneurial spirit of students, providing them with a platform to run their own food stalls while promoting business acumen and innovation.

The BBAYATAI event featured a diverse range of food stalls, each managed by enthusiastic student teams. From traditional local cuisines to international delicacies, the stalls offered a delectable array of dishes that catered to various tastes and preferences. The event provided BBA students with an opportunity to put their entrepreneurial skills into practice. Each stall was a mini-business venture, with students responsible for everything from menu planning and pricing to marketing and customer service.

Some stalls incorporated unique twists to classic recipes, while others focused on sustainable and eco-friendly packaging, aligning with the centre's emphasis on creativity and sustainability. BBAYATAI witnessed active student engagement and participation. The enthusiasm displayed by the student entrepreneurs was contagious, creating a vibrant and lively atmosphere. Students not only showcased their culinary talents but also demonstrated their ability to manage a business effectively.

The food stall event received an overwhelming response from both students and faculty members. The campus buzzed with excitement as everyone relished the diverse culinary offerings. The positive feedback highlighted the success of the event in not only promoting entrepreneurship but also in enhancing the campus community's cultural experience. BBAYATAI was not just a food stall event; it was a celebration of entrepreneurship, innovation, and diverse culinary experiences. The collaboration between the BBA
